MARRIAGE MINUTE

Are you going through a "dry" time in your marriage? When we feel this way, it can be very lonely. If this is where you are right now, know that Jesus is with you.

Jesus' time in the desert was not easy, but he survived it because he relied on his Father through prayer, which strengthened him for his mission. As married couples, we rely on God through prayers, sacraments, and by using all the resources the Body of Christ has for us. This includes gaining valuable skills through marriage enrichment. We also take confidence knowing that in every trial, great graces await us.

- To grow in prayer this Lent, try the online email retreat at www.archkck.org/30dayretreat.
- To grow in relationship skills and marriage insight, try the upcoming Recharge Retreat at www.archkck.org/recharge.

WEEK 1 WORKS OF MERCY

Works of Mercy

Why is it so important to make the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy a part of your Faith life, especially during Lent? Lent is a favorable season for opening the doors to all those in need and recognizing in them the face of Christ."-- Pope Francis

Lent is a time to devote to prayer, fasting, and giving alms. Giving of alms shares God's gifts with others, through the distribution of money, as well as the sharing of time and talents. As St. John Chrysostom reminds us: "Not to enable the poor to share in our goods is to steal from them and deprive them of life. The goods we possess are not ours, but theirs." (Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 2446).

There is no reason to fail the Exam of your Final Judgment.

God has given us the questions and answers to the Final Exam: How specifically did you show mercy? It is vitally important we prepare for this test. The Works of Mercy is a checklist to help us make sure we are on track. Just as a pilot has a checklist before landing, so, too, does Christ through his Church give us a checklist. So just exactly how are you going to answer Jesus when he asks, "What did you do for the least of my brothers and sisters?"

Works of Mercy are the Completion of your Communion

Saint Mother Teresa talked about her mercy ministry to the poor in terms of "the second real presence". Just as Christ is really present in the Eucharist, he is also present in "the least of these." So when we receive Christ in Communion we are empowered to go out and return that loving mercy to Christ in those who are in distress, physically and spiritually. Jesus loves us so much that he gives us a chance to love him back, and to do so, heroically. This is why Pope Benedict XVI taught that "A Eucharist that does not pass into concrete acts of love is intrinsically fragmented."

You are Commissioned to be an Agent of God's Love.

We are born and live in the need for God's mercy. Christ teaches us that we get to make the grading curve for "the measure by which we measure so shall we be measured". However, more importantly, God gives us the supernatural power to be like him and his mercy is his best attribute. As baptized Christians, we are charged with going out in the world making Christ's love visible especially to one another. "Love one another as I have loved you."
