MARRIAGE MINUTE

In Tolkien's novel The Return of the King, the Steward of Gondor has been at his post so long he has forgotten that he is the guardian of the land, not its king. He sees it as his possession. This leads to a grasping at the last clutches of power, resentment toward the real king and ultimately an untimely death born of despair.

This Sunday's second reading reminds us that we are "stewards of the mysteries of God". As married people, we are called specifically to safeguard the Sacrament of Matrimony. This means 0 our marriages are a gift from God for which we are meant to care, not possess or dominate. This perspective is freeing! It helps us 1. Worry less, because God is with us. 2. Release our spouse (and ourselves) from unrealistic expectations 3. Love our children in the most generous way 4. See our vocation as the noble calling it is! JESUS said to his disciples:

Learn from the way the wild flowers grow. They do not work or spin.

But I tell you that not even Solomon in all his splendor was clothed like one of them.

If God clothes the grass of the field, will he not much more provide for you, O you of little faith?

Seek first the Kingdom of God!
