MARRIAGE MINUTE

In this week's readings, we hear about the fall of our original parents, Adam and Eve. We sometimes forget that this initial temptation and subsequent sin was not only an attack on the first two humans, it was an attack on Marriage and God's beautiful plan of communion between the first husband and wife.

Adam and Eve were called to cultivate the Garden of Eden and protect it with Divine assistance. We can approach our marriages in the same way. Our Sacraments are a gift from God, and we have the calling to cultivate and protect them with Divine assistance. How do we do this?

- Unlike Adam and Eve, ask God for help when trouble arises.
- Give one another the benefit of the doubt when a misunderstanding arises.
- Be the first to ask for forgiveness
- Be quick to offer forgiveness

After the masses this weekend, members of the Altar Society will be distributing a booklet entitled "Altar Society Reference Manual" to the women in our parish. The booklets are a practical guide to learning more about serving Christ and His Church as members of this organization.

We kindly request that all ladies please take one as you leave mass today. Thank you!

(The following note is from the Seminarian who receives support from our Knights)

Dear Knights of Sacred Heart Parish,

Thank you so much for the generous financial gift and most especially for the prayers. I am continually humbled by the amount of support that is in the ArchKCK community for seminarians – we are truly blessed!

Here is a little information about my year so far. Two weeks ago the men in the Spirituality Year returned from our 'Poverty Immersion'. We went out 2 by 2 to 12 different locations, relying solely on God's providence. This desert experience of sorts brought me much closer to the Lord & deeper into my discernment – for this I am thankful! Up and coming in our year is a 5 day & a 30 day silent retreat. Please remember us in your prayers – especially in the month of May. Finally, be assured of my prayers. We lift up our benefactors every day in evening prayer (LOTH).

*God bless you all & your parish,
Timothy J. Skoch*

The Archbishop wants to build a culture of vocations by establishing vocation ministries in our parishes and Catholic schools. Each parish and/or school is asked to send 2-6 representatives to a FREE workshop on Friday evening, March 10, from 6-9 p.m. Author, Rhonda Gruenewald, will be at Savior Pastoral Center to equip interested parishioners so they can promote and nurture vocations by starting or reviving a vocation ministry in their parish. This workshop has been given throughout the country and is based on her book, Hundredfold. Rhonda is a lively speaker who will share her passion for building this ministry and many ideas for activities. Please let Fr. Bill know if you are interested in attending.
