MARRIAGE MINUTE

Do you ever get frustrated with your spouse for doing that one small, annoying thing over and over even though you have made it clear that it bothers you? Have you ever been frustrated with yourself for having to apologize for the same thing?

Weakness is hard to accept...both in ourselves and our spouse. This weekend's readings tell us that when we are weak, we are strong. Why?

- Every act of forgiveness is a recommitment to love that makes us stronger.
- Our own weakness makes us humble, relying on God's grace.
- Accepting our spouse's weakness helps us to be patient with ourselves (and vice versa). Stuck thinking about your spouse's faults? Try massive amounts of compliments and affirmation! They don't erase weakness, but change your focus.
