THIS IS

NATIONAL VOCATION AWARENESS WEEK

God has called each one of us to holiness and to a vocation as either a single person, married or a special call to be a priest or religious brother or sister. One of the most important things we can do is to seriously discern what God is calling us to do with our life, because when we follow that path we will be the most fulfilled. Parents, friends, and relatives can play a crucial role in supporting a person in their discernment. If you know a young person who has the qualities and character that you see in priests or religious, let them know! Tell them you will pray for them. Perhaps that is the confirmation they need to explore their vocation. God's call is not silent, but often we are not listening.

PRAYING ON PAPER: A THANKSGIVING SEASON RETREAT

Wednesday, November 15th 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Mt. St. Scholastica – Atchison, Ks.

In this workshop, graphic artist Gerry Lantagne introduces a method of prayer that is meditative, active, visual, serious, and playful. By doodling with pen, markers, and paper, participants will learn a new way to delve into a passage of Scripture and address the daily stresses of life and work. Praying on Paper is an ideal form of prayer for persons who tend to be word weary, antsy and distracted. No artistic ability is necessary to participate! For more information or to register, call 913-360-6173 or visit Sophia Spirituality Center's Web Site:
